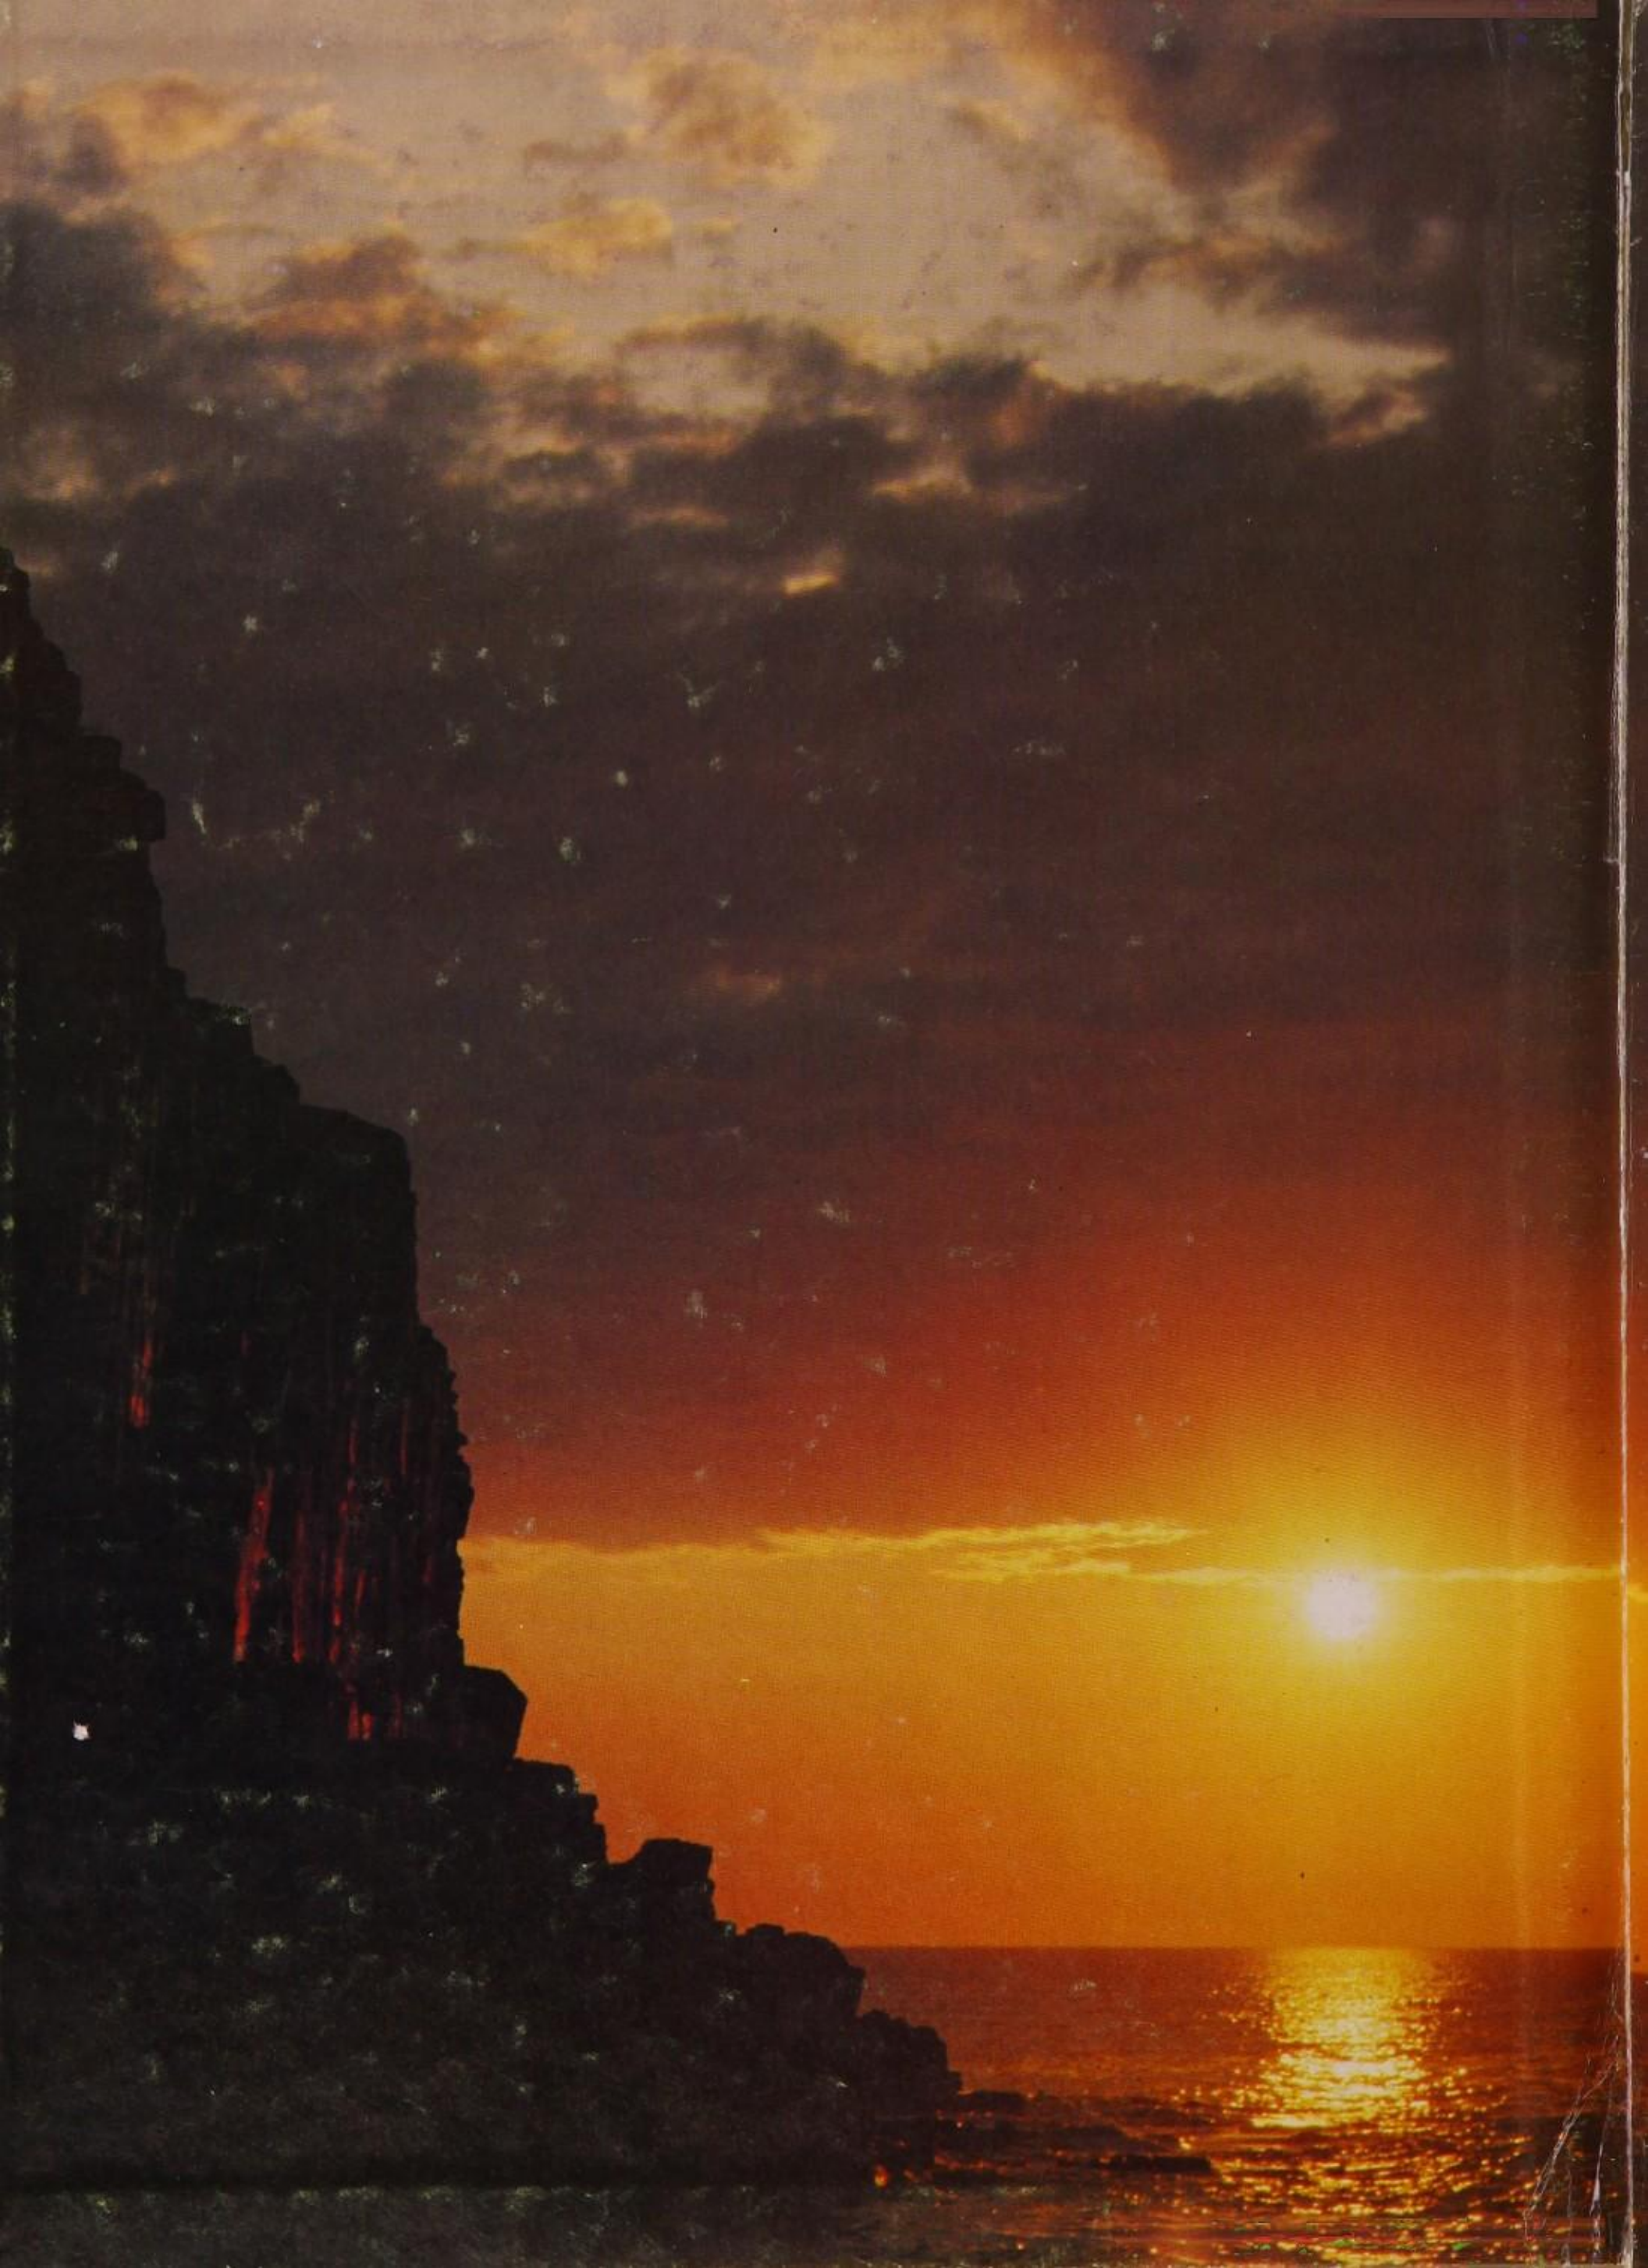
DEJA VU



DEJA VU

WE LEAVE IN THIS YEARBOOK
PRECIOUS MEMORIES OF OUR YEARS
AT NEW ROCHELLE ACADEMY.

WE HAVE SHARED
MANY BEAUTIFUL EXPERIENCES
AND WILL CONTINUE TO SHARE THEM
WHEREVER WE MAY BE.

EVEN THOUGH WE ARE ABOUT TO DEPART THE ACADEMY IN BODY,
WE REMAIN IN SPIRIT AND SOUL
AND ARE SURE TO RETURN IN SOME WAY.

THE MORE THINGS CHANGE,
THE MORE THEY REMAIN THE SAME.
TODAY'S REALITY IS YESTERDAY'S ASPIRATION.
TODAY'S DREAMS WILL BE THE REALITY OF TOMORROW.

DEJA VU

A new morning and the honking of a horn
Squeaky new sneakers and a Yankees' cap
A yellow bus rolling across bumpy roads
Forgetting your notebook and pen at home
Sasson jeans and high - heeled shoes
Last minute cramming for exams
Children running across an open field
Hearty laughs for old jokes
Chalk dust and tired eyes
Sharing good times with good friends
Three o'clock with the ringing of the bell
A senior license and Dad's new car

"THE PARODY" - OUR INVICTUS

Out Of The Class That Smothers Me,
Boring And Dull From Bell To Bell,
I Thank Whatever Gods May Be
That I Don't Have To Stay For Eternity.

In The Fell Clutch Of Every Class
I Have Winced And Whined And Cried Aloud;
Under The Bludgeonings Of Tests
My Eyes Are Bloodshot From Unrest.

Within These Academic Walls
Looms But The Punishment For Chewing Gum,
And Still The Anguish That Convicts Us
Finds And Leaves Us All "Invictus".

It Matters Not How High You Rank,
Your Montessori Service Or Your Cookie Sales.
Rejoice! The Torment Will Soon Terminate
In June, When Seniors Graduate.

Déjà Vu is a psychological phenomenon that suggests to the one experiencing this mysterious feeling: "I have been here before." Psychologists attribute this remarkable sensation to a momentary lapse in conscious cognition.

For a headmaster each graduating class is like the recurring cycle of the unfolding leaf: each bare branch of winter buds into spring life, bursts into summer foliage and disperses in glorious fall colors across the landscape. Each senior, a unique leaf with individual color, design and destiny, repeats the process of the turning world and so the concept of déjà vu is part of our ken.

May the leaves of our tree fly into great adventures of further growth and new discoveries, always remembering their roots.

GOOD OLD SCHOOL DAYS

WE SENIORS WILL REMEMBER OUR TEACHERS

Mr. Artigues, for that "sensual" French accent; for his guest appearances in the senior lounge.

Mr. Fields, for that clean - shaven look; for "no names, please".

Mrs. Frumkin, for those late enchanted evenings we have spent at her home.

Mrs. Fuhrer, for correctly pronouncing our yearbook title.

Miss Kaplan, for that vivacious personality that led the volley-ball team to a near perfect record.

Ms. Lavery, for waking us up in the morning with her dramatic antics.

Ms. Levin, for always keeping in touch; for enlivening the art room.

Mr. Mammalello, for his accurate description of the senior class.

Mr. Megarr , for saving us from gas explosions; for those after-school labs.

Mr. Moscarello, for his dealings with the students; for his enthusiasm for the yearbook.

Mrs. Piotrowski, for being the catalyst of those class discussions; for teaching us socially acceptable ways to express our anger.

Mrs. Zalkin, for keeping the library extremely quiet.

DEDICATION

The class of 1980 wishes to dedicate this yearbook to a very special individual. Mrs. Judy Frumkin's excellent standards of teaching have been displayed in her efforts to make the language department one of the most impressive in the history of New Rochelle Academy. She has devoted herself to guiding students in their exploration of foreign languages throughout their school years.

Mrs. Frumkin is a unique individual in the sense of the characteristics which she displays: her dedication to learning, her sound and personal advice, her encouraging smiles, the free telephone calls and especially the "frozen" pizza and "warm" soda we could always count on when at her home.

What is there to say but "Thank you." Without your assistance this meaningful project would not have been completed. Thank you for being Mrs. Frumkin.

To the Senior Class of 1980:

In keeping with your theme of déjà vu, which is the triggering of a feeling of having undergone a similar experience in the past, I have thought of our associations during the past six years. It has been my pleasure to watch your development from awkward preadolescents to young adults on the verge of college, career and a meaningful place in society. I have also witnessed your intellectual growth to its present state of searching as you are just beginning to grasp the import of your questions. As always, my thoughts are also saddened because I will not be with you for your eventual breakthrough into adulthood and its concomitant joys and sorrows. No doubt, in the future, a sound or a scene will bring to my mind the class of 1980. I only hope that when a similar experience occurs to you, the sensation will be as delightful and satisfying as mine will be. I wish you all of the joys that only a truly creative life can offer.

Mr. Albert Fields

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, GREGG AHARONI, leave my athletic abilities to N.R.A. for future use.

I, BRAD BERNARD, leave this school knowing that _____.

I, ANNMARIE CARUSO, leave to my friends: Ellen Frankel - my nails, Janet Glogover - my car, and Kathy Russell - my big mouth.

I, MICHAEL COHEN, leave Al Cooke, Gregg and Mike Wright for roommates at M.S.U.

I, MORRIS COHEN, leave my brains to Gregg Aharoni.

I, ALBERT COOKE, leave my basketball jersey and old NIKES to Charles "Doughnut Master" Vento who will use these things to inspire him to get off his duff.

I, JOSÉ CORREA, leave my male chauvinist pig (macho) attitudes to Mrs. Frumkin for further use in Spanish class discussions.

I, MICHAEL DELMAN, leave all my schoolbooks to the Cohens.

I, FRED FIELDS, leave all of my skill to the eleventh grade students who participate in an Academy sport. Good luck!

I, ELLEN FRANKEL, leave two tickets to my first Broadway appearance.

I, ROBIN GIVENS, leave my mouth to Monica Amann for further use in her senior year.

I, BONNIE GLOGOVER, leave my seat on the bus to Jimmy Lynch and may he enjoy all the bumps!

I, JANET GLOGOVER, leave going to Heidis - I'll meet you there!

I, ALFRED GRECO, leave my inferiority complex to L. P.

I, JOAN HALLE, leave the memories.

I, ROBIN KOZINN, leave Bruce Springsteen, Patti Smith, rock and roll, punk rock records. I also leave something punk - perhaps a whip - and black leather, of course.

I, SCOTT LEFKOWITZ IV, leave.

I, GABRIELLE LEQUERIQUE, leave my fingers to Miki for further piano playing.

I, RALPH MARINO, leave Al Cooke my great hands for football use.

I, MARTINA MURRAY, leave New Rochelle Academy with the determination to succomb to nothing and the objectivity to experience all.

I, KATHY RUSSELL, leave six years of New Rochelle Academy to anyone who wants it.

I, MIKI UCHIDA, leave the reminiscences and our yearbook.

I, TONI LYNN VITELLO, leave my brush, makeup, and mirror to my fourth period Geometry class.

I, MICHAEL WRIGHT, leave my speed to Al Cooke.

THE FACULTY WILL REMEMBER THE SENIORS

Levine scores for NR Academy

Ken Levine made the only goal early in the first half as New Rochelle Academy posted a 1-0 soccer victory over Rockland Country Day School. It was NRA's second win over Rockland this season. Goalie Blerim Mulosmanaj was credited with five saves for NRA. Coaches Anthony Mammalello and Jo... Katz pointed to the keeper and a stout defense led ... Levine, Glenn Ferdico, Gary Fruchter, Michael Wrig... and David Stark as the keys to success.

Mrs. J. Frumkin - Advisor

Special thanks: to Dr. Firestone and our photography crew - Erik, Corey, Glen, Chaz, Jonathan, Ellen, Scott, Brad, and Alfred; to Bonnie for her copy work; to Joanie for her fund-raising efforts; and especially to Mrs. Goldberg's class for its enthusiasm for our poster sale.

In conclusion, the staff wishes to thank everyone (you know who you are) involved with our yearbook who may not have been mentioned previously.

"I'm sorry Smudge, but you can't help us this time."

EDITORS' MESSAGE

Creating this yearbook has certainly been one of the most meaningful, rewarding and interesting experiences of our years at New Rochelle Academy.

The entire book enables us to reminisce upon a special time and feeling. We sincerely hope that you, too, can find something of special meaning to you in this yearbook.

It is rather difficult for us to fully express the value of each memory placed in the book. Let us conclude this message by saying that we will never forget these experiences; they will be with us forever. Perhaps we may encounter the same feelings in our lifetimes. If it were possible to do so, we would want to work on this yearbook again.

We would like to thank Dr. and Mrs. Firestone, Mr. Fields, the Frumkins, the entire administration, faculty, staff, student body, and parents for their constant support.

Thank you for helping us create a precious memory.

Miki Uchida, Editor
Kathy Russell, Co-Editor

P. S.

Good luck to all our classmates. We wish you nothing less than the very best that life has to offer.

DEAREST BONNIE,

THROUGHOUT THE YEARS YOU HAVE ALWAYS
THANKED US FOR ONE THING OR ANOTHER.
IT IS OUR TURN NOW TO SAY "THANK YOU, BONNIE!"
THANK YOU FOR BEING SUCH A JOY.
YOU HAVE BROUGHT US NOTHING BUT HAPPINESS
AND WE ARE EVER SO GRATEFUL -
STAY AS DEAR AS YOU ARE
AND YOU WILL GO FAR.
CONGRATULATIONS TO YOU AND YOUR SENIOR CLASSMATES.

Our students never suffer from boredom

Dear Robin,

My heart is full but I cannot write the things I feel in a million words. Motherhood has been the most beautiful thing in my life. The wonder of it never ceases for me. To see you develop from a helpless child into a strong young woman - to see your mind changing with the years is overwhelming. Being your mother is almost a saintly experience. Anyone who receives such a blessing should be eternally grateful. I thank God.
Needless to say, I wish for you and want for you all the best life has to offer.

Love,
Mom

To My Niece Robin:

Continue learning!
Learn to practice tolerance and
Patience with an open heart and mind.
Learn to be a finisher because a labor
Only partly completed is worthless.
Learn to make your every endeavor count.
But most of all,
Learn to overcome your weaknesses and
Strengthen your virtues, and you'll
Never stop learning.

You're ingeniously ————-ingenuous.
I'm proud of you.

Congratulations and Best Wishes.

From your Aunt,
Peggy Newby

To Robin:

All the wonderful things in life
should be given to you.
Congratulations and best wishes upon your graduation.

Love always,
Terry

KATHY

I knew when you were very small
That your school days would pass
In no time at all!

Yet, Kathy, now it seems hardly true
That the years have gone,
And you're trodding paths so new.

Your classroom days are coming to an end
As you enter a new life stage,
Continuing on to another road's bend.

Keep lofty your aim, and steady your stride.
Smile, traveling along life's road,
Knowing you've been my life-long pride!
